

Position : Economist (Phd)
Reports to : Manjeet Kripalani and Project Manager
Location : Gateway House, Mumbai
Salary : ₹ 1 lakh+ pm/(Based on experience & industry standards)
Start Date : At start of project
Job Type : Full Time/Project basis

Expertise:

- Economics and Finance : Study of currency markets and movements, international financial markets, global regulatory frameworks and monetary policies, geopolitics of capital flows, multilateral financial institutions, geostrategic risk
- Foreign trade policy: Study of bilateral, regional (eg.India-ASEAN), plurilateral (e.g. CPTTP) and multilateral trade agreements and arrangements (e.g. WTO).
- Business and supply chains: Study of multinational corporations, global value chains, foreign joint ventures, etc.

Expectations:

- High quality research and quantitative and qualitative analysis on Maharashtra state subjects to provide timely access to department-wise insights, historical data, data backed inputs and sector-specific content
- Work in an intellectual environment with short and long deadlines.
- Enthusiastic and creative team player with ability to work with multiple stakeholders and independently
- Independent, non-partisan mindset, with a solution-oriented thinking
- Attention to detail
- Understanding of domestic policies-state and national, governance structures and foreign policy
- Good communication and writing skills
- Stay updated on domestic and international trends and news

Responsibilities and Expectations

- Work with Senior Fellows and junior researchers.
- Work on Maharashtra state-specific projects; Analyse and evaluate existing material on the subject, including the state's on-going projects, vision plans, multilateral initiatives, think tank reports, public and political speeches, academic journals and writing, proceedings of conferences and seminars, multiple publications and media. Provide timely research for department-wise insights, using historical data, and sector-specific information
- Field and desk research required, including attending subject seminars and lectures.
- Apply appropriate research techniques including quantitative modelling, data interpretation, mapping, and primary knowledge when planning, designing and implementing of policy and projects.
- Write, review and edit well-researched, data-driven references for speeches, visits, meetings, campaigns, policy formulation, and key announcements
- Write papers and reports, policy formulations, lead surveys, case studies and interviews.
- Carry out quantitative, econometric and computational analysis as also qualitative research.
- Analyse domestic and global economic developments and assess their implications for India's strategic and economic interests.
- Meet agreed timelines and maintain the highest standards of academic integrity and originality.

Requirements :

- Indian nationality preferred.
- Knowledge of Marathi is an added advantage.
- A Ph.D. in Economics from a recognised university; or an Associate Professor of Economics at a recognised university or academic institution with a demonstrated research record.
- Sector Expertise: Relevant experience or functional knowledge in at least one of the following sectors:
 - Infrastructure, Connectivity & Urban Development
 - Education, Skills & Innovation
 - Technology & Digital Governance
 - Finance, Corporate Affairs, Taxation & Legal
 - Energy and Sustainability
- Strong publication record in peer-reviewed journals, policy papers, or reputed think tanks.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office and search technologies.
- Experience of working in government, multilateral institutions, financial institutions, multinational businesses or think tanks will be given added value.

Interested candidates may apply to jobs@gatewayhouse.in mentioning “Application for the position of _____” in the subject line.